

Practice Report - Full Rubric
Indicator	Degree of Achievement
	1	2	3	4	5
Solution Strategy	The student does not know or is not capable of applying the strategies needed to solve the questions in the practice statement.	The student knows the solving strategies but has some difficulties to apply them.	The student knows the solving strategies and he or she applies them correctly.	The student is able to autonomously determine one or several strategies to solve the proposed problem.	The student is able to autonomously determine one or several strategies for solving the proposed problem. When several alternatives are proposed, their advantages and drawbacks are described.
Tools	The student does not know whatsoever the tool or tools to be employed in order to solve the questions in the practice statement.	The student knows -or is able to acquire the corresponding knowledge autonomously- those tool features that will allow him or her to solve the task, but these features are not adequately applied.	The student knows -or is able to acquire the corresponding knowledge autonomously- those tool features that will allow him or her to solve the task, and these features are adequately applied.	The student masters the tools to be employed.
Degree of Achievement	None of the questions in the practice statement have been solved.	There are pending questions to be solved.	All the questions have been solved.
Correctness of the Solution	The proposed solution is not correct.	The proposed solution is not correct but the strategy used is appropriate.	The proposed solution is correct.
Justification	The way to achieve the proposed solution has not been described.	The solution has not been fully justified.	All the steps followed to achieve the solution have been adequately justified.
Presentation	The solution has not been properly presented.	Some aspects in the solution presentation have not been correctly detailed.	Aspects like writing or technical quality have been correctly addressed in the description of the solution achieved.
 Defense	The student is not able to justify the work performed to solve the tasks proposed in the practice.	The student has some difficulties to justify the work performed.	The student can effectively describe the method followed to solve the questions in the practice statement.		